3 Reasons the candidate thinks the Winter Academy program is suited to them:
I understand that there is an increased level of personal responsibility for candidates on the Academy program due to participation in advanced training in a variety of challenging conditions. Participants are trained in and involved in rescues of themselves and their peers. Training is incremental and progresses at the level of the group, however if a participant fails to engage with the training or participate to an acceptable standard, or in any way challenge or hinder the safety or progression of the group, then they may be removed from the program at the discretion of the lead tutors.	Yes	No
I understand that there is an increased risk to participants as they engage in advanced training of adventure sports in a variety of challenging conditions, sometimes in remote areas. There is an increased likelihood of injury compared to other areas of activity at Gecko Adventures and participants are advised to have personal medical insurance cover. Medical cover is not covered by Gecko Adventures	Yes	No
I understand that this is a dynamic program which relies heavily on weather and tide conditions moreso than other activities and so plans may change at short notice, and that the program includes trips at different locations which may require drop off and collection at these locations although we encourage car pooling.
